To Prospective Client of the Sheraton Uptown Hotel, Albuquerque, NM

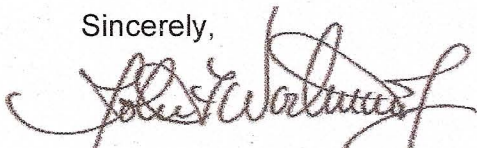

Our organization has been a client of the Sheraton Albuquerque Uptown Hotel for over 10 years. In each of those years, we have held three meetings at the Sheraton, including a convention for over 150 attendees. Our experience there has been excellent and we expect to continue holding our events there long into the future.

The staff of the Sheraton is one of its greatest assets. Each staff member is focused on customer service, even if the need goes beyond their assigned area of responsibility. From housekeeping, to the front desk, to the sales staff, it is a pleasure to work with everyone at the Sheraton Uptown.

Along with the excellent staff, the overall quality of the Sheraton experience is consistent and often exceeds our expectations. The food is exceptional, as are the meeting facilities and guest rooms. We are looking forward to the new look of the Sheraton that will be coming later in 2008.

Please feel free to contact us if you have any questions as we would be happy to share our experiences at the Sheraton with you in further detail.

Sincerely,

John F. Wortman, Jr.
